Trip milestones

- UNESCO World Heritage sites and living Cuban neighborhoods
- Direct support for independent casas particulares and paladares
- Full-time Support for the Cuban People schedule for US travelers
- Expert local guiding and boutique casas with en-suite rooms

Day 1 • Arrival • Havana

Welcome to Cuba! A member of Cuba 360 will pick you up at the airport. Look for our logo with your name on it (or the name of the person in your party who booked the holiday). Next, you will be transferred to your accommodation.

There are several options of places to check out during the evenings. After all, Havana's nightlife is as unique as its culture and history. We'll be happy to arrange some of them for you if you want us to. Here are some of the options:

- Visit the Cuban Art Factory (or FAC as locals call it), a space that joins together good drinks with some of the best Cuban contemporary art (Photography, Sculpture, Interior Design, Fashion, Painting, Music, Film, Theatre, etc.). The Cuban Art Factory only opens on weekends and sometimes closes for special events that happen in Havana.
- Head to San Carlos de La Cabaña fortress and witness the Cannon Shot Ceremony, a unique and picturesque show that has been happening every night for the last 300 years.
- Enjoy a unique show at world-famous Tropicana Cabaret, one of the few bastions of Havana's Las Vegas-style nightlife to survive the revolution.

These evening outings are optional extras. We'll happily arrange them if you'd like, but any costs that follow—tickets, cover charges, drinks, or extra transport—are not included in the tour package.

Day 2 • Old Havana • rum • classic convertible

Take a walking tour around the heart of Cuba, Old Havana. Discover the magic that hides in every corner of this audacious city. More than 500 years of history make this the perfect place to unleash your curiosity. Hundreds of buildings from the 19th, 18th, 17th, and even 16th centuries spread around the narrow streets of this romantic city. Walk around this open air museum and delight yourself with the infinity of amazing views that go around in every direction, making it impossible not to look and try to capture the moment with your camera.

Wander around all the main squares, all of them with their own special places you shouldn't miss. Also, have a look at the majestic cathedral that stands as an icon of the city, its history and architecture. Discover iconic places like the National Capitol, the Paseo del Prado, the Floridita, La Bodeguita del Medio, the Parque Central, etc.

Let's have a look at one of Havana's oldest and most famous cigar businesses, the Real Fábrica de Tabacos Partagás, founded in 1845 by Spaniard Jaime Partagás. It was built in response to the increase in demand this industry experienced during the second half of the 19th century. Specializing in full-bodied cigars, today some 400 workers toil for up to 12 hours a day here rolling such famous cigars as Montecristos and Cohibas. In your visit, you'll learn about the long and refined process of cigar manufacturing. Later, learn about rum production in Cuba with a visit to Havana Club's Rum Museum. The evolution and history of the whole process will be explained to you in a guided visit, which includes a tasting of a seven-year-old añejo at the end of the tour, along with the opportunity to buy some of the precious liquid.

Jump in a convertible car and explore the more modern parts of the city. Drive through different neighborhoods and discover the highlights of Vedado and Centro Habana. Have a look at Revolution Square, where Fidel Castro used to give endless speeches in front of thousands of his supporters. Drive by Colón Cemetery, one of the biggest and most important in the world. Enjoy the breeze at El Malecón, Havana's evocative 7 km-long sea drive, a favored meeting place for assorted lovers, philosophers, poets, traveling minstrels, fishers and wistful Florida-gazers. Some of the landmarks we'll see include the American Embassy, the Hotel Nacional, Havana's Forest and many more.

Explore Finca Vigía, a villa on a hill in San Francisco de Paula, 15km southeast of Havana, where the American writer Ernest Hemingway lived continuously for 20 years. When he departed for the US in 1960 soon after Fidel Castro's revolution, he generously donated his house to the 'Cuban people.' It is now a museum and almost unchanged since the day Hemingway left. In the heavily wooded grounds below the house, you'll encounter the swimming pool where Ava Gardner once swam naked, a cockfighting ring and Hemingway's beloved fishing boat, Pilar, grounded on what was once his tennis court.

Adventure into western Havana and discover Fusterlandia, a huge tilework masterpiece built by local artist José Fuster over the last 20 years. If Gaudí reincarnates and decides to go for a tropical spin, this is it. Fuster's work has covered several suburban blocks with whimsical but highly stylized public art. The centerpiece is the artist's own house, which you can explore as you check on the different galleries where some of his art is sold, including ceramic tiles and paintings.

Day 3 • Callejón de Hamel • salsa

Wander along Callejón de Hamel, Havana's high temple of Afro-Cuban culture. A whole street full of mural paintings and shrines. The project started back in the 90's, when artist Salvador González decided to repair the deteriorated facades of houses in the alley and covered them with murals related to Afro-Cuban syncretism. Sunday is the best day to visit it, since it's when the alley shows its true spirit. That day, the neighbors, dressed up as ancient gods of the Yoruba pantheon, Orishas, welcome visitors and drums go aloud.

Take a salsa lesson. If you love salsa, then you sure know there is no place like Cuba to master this contagious rhythm. In a country where people are born with music in their blood, dancing salsa is just part of everyday life. So taking a salsa lesson with one of our virtuous salsa instructors is a must if you are in Havana. It doesn't matter if you are a beginner or you already know how to dance, the lesson will be personalized to your skill level. Next, we'll show you one of our favorite spots in the whole city, a rooftop terrace in Old Havana. Here, you'll learn how to make a mojito and a canchánchara, two classic Cuban cocktails. There are non-alcoholic options as well. You'll be able to prepare your own, and you can drink as many as you like.

Day 4 • Havana • departure

Transfer to Havana's international airport. It's time to say goodbye to Cuba, at least for now. It's sad to see you go back to your country, but this adventure together has come to an end. We hope to see you again in our country, until then: Take care, we'll miss you.

Everything travelers need to decide

Included

- Cuban visa & paperwork. We'll assist you with the Cuban visa, filling out the D'Viajeros form, and any other paperwork you might need for the trip.
- Airport transfers. Door-to-door arrivals and departures when included on your booking.
- Ground transport. Air-conditioned vehicles shared with your small group (max 12).
- Expert local guiding. Bilingual storytellers aligned with Support for the Cuban People.
- Boutique casas particulares. Hand-picked B&Bs; every room has a private en-suite bathroom, air conditioning, and hot water.
- Scheduled entries & activities as listed, including any included choice sets named in this itinerary.
- Meals. Daily breakfast at the casa and any lunches named in this itinerary. Most lunches and dinners are not included.

Not included

- International flights. You choose the routing that works from home—usually into Havana.
- Most lunches & dinners. We leave these meals off the package so you have more flexibility.
- Optional Havana nightlife. Evening outings such as FAC, the cannon-shot ceremony, or Tropicana can be arranged on request; tickets and related costs are not in the package.
- Optional extras marked as not included in the day pages (for example paid beach or hike add-ons).
- Tips & gratuities. Tipping is customary in Cuba, but it isn't compulsory—it's optional. As a guide: around 10–15% in restaurants. For guides and drivers, many travelers set a daily amount in the range of about $1–$10 per person per day, assigned separately to each. Casa hosts are less likely to receive tips, since they own their own business.

Prepare your paperwork without the last-minute scramble

Entering Cuba is straightforward when prepared in advance. We assist every traveler with the visa, D’Viajeros form, and any other paperwork for the trip. Follow this four-step workflow well before flight day.

01

Passport & validity

Your passport must be valid for at least six months beyond the start of your trip. Confirm entry rules for every traveler’s nationality. We’ll send casa addresses as dates approach so you can complete arrival forms with the right details.

02

Cuba visa & D’Viajeros

US travelers join us under Support for the Cuban People. Obtain the e-visa through your airline or at cubavisaservices.com once flights are booked. Complete D’Viajeros within 72 hours of your flight at dviajeros.mitrans.gob.cu/inicio.

03

Insurance & booking dossier

Cuban medical insurance is required to enter. U.S. airlines include basic coverage with your ticket. Keep booking confirmations, casa details, and our 24/7 contacts in one file.

04

Copies & airline check

Keep digital offline backups and printed copies of key vouchers. Complete D’Viajeros a day in advance if you can—we’re here to help.
