Day 2 BAY OR PIGS - CIENFUEGOS - TRINIDAD

Head to Bay of Pigs, the same place where more than 50 years ago an invasion carried out by Cuban exiles and organized by the US government took place. Bay of pigs is in Zapata Swamp, the biggest natural reserve in Cuba and a place that boasts with wildlife. Some of the nicest features in the area are hidden underwater, making Bay of Pigs a terrific spot for snorkelling and diving.

Our first stop is Cueva de los Peces, a 70m-deep cenote (sink-hole) on the inland side of the coast road halfway between Playa Larga and Playa Girón. It's a pretty spot, as popular with swimmers as snorkelers, for spotting tropical fish.

Next, we'll Learn about the history of Bay of Pigs invasion at Playa Giron's museum. This well-kept museum with its gleaming display cases evokes a tangible sense of the history of the famous Cold War episode that unfolded within rifle-firing distance of this spot in 1961. The museum offers two rooms of artifacts from the Bay of Pigs skirmish plus numerous photos of the combat.

Continue south-east to Cienfuegos, one of Cuba's youngest cities, founded in 1819 by French emigrants from Bordeaux and Louisiana, its elegant classical architecture earned it a UNESCO World Heritage Site listing in 2005. Due to its beauty, economical importance and strategic placement, this city has always been known as the pearl in Cuba's south coast. Have a walking tour around the city and have a look at the local landmarks, including Tomas Terry Theater, one of Cuba's oldest and best preserved. Visit Cienfuegos's Cathedral, Palacio de Valle, Muelle Real, Jose Marti square and many other iconic spots of the city. CONTINUE TO TRINIDAD.

In a country where people are born with music in their blood, dancing salsa is just part of every day's life. So taking a salsa lesson with one of our virtuous salsa instructors is a must if you are in Havana. It doesn't matter if you are a beginner or you already know how to dance, the lesson will be personalized to your skill level.
- Take a horse ride around the countryside of Trinidad, making stops for some coffee, a dip at a crystal-clear river and later for lunch at one of the local farmers' improvised restaurants. The duration of the trip depends on the phase and the duration of the stops, you should expect no less than 3 hours total.

– Adventure into Playa Ancon, less than 15 min away from Trinidad. Ancon is known as the best beach in Cuba's south coast. Actually, the Cuban government in partnership with Spanish hotel chains Melia and Iberostar are heavily investing in the construction of resorts in the area, so now is a good opportunity to enjoy it before it gets too crowded.

Day 4 SANTA CLARA - HAVANA

In your way back to Havana, stop at Santa Clara, a city with a very close connection to Che Guevara. At the final days of the fight for the Cuban communist revolution, back in 1958, a series of combats happened here that decided the course of history. Visit Che Guevara's mausoleum, where his remains are kept, along with the ones of his comrades in arms. Santa Clara is also known for being kind of an "edgy" city, with a local cultural scene that contrasts with the rest of the country. Santa Clara has the first drag show in Cuba and one of the most prestigious rock festivals in the area.

The centerpiece is the artist's own house, which you can explore as you check on the different galleries where some of his art is sold, including ceramic tiles and paintings.

Wander along the Callejon de Hamel, Havana's high temple of Afro-Cuban culture. A whole street full of mural paintings and shrines. The project started back in the 90's, when artist Salvador Gonzalez decided to repair the deteriorated facades of houses in the alley and covered them with murals related to the Afro-Cuban syncretism. Sunday is the best day to visit it, since it's when the alley shows its true spirit. That day, the neighbors, dressed up as ancient gods of Yoruba Pantheon, Orishas, welcome visitors and drums go aloud.

Let's have a look at one of Havana's oldest and most famous cigar businesses, the Real Fábrica de Tabacos Partagás was founded in 1845 by Spaniard Jaime Partagás. It was built in response to the increase in demand this industry experienced during the second half of the 19th century. Specializing in full-bodied cigars, today some 400 workers toil for up to 12 hours a day in here rolling such famous cigars as Montecristos and Cohibas. In your visit, you'll learn about the long and refined process of cigar manufacturing.
